Sketchbook Walk - Kidwelly Castle

with Lucy Donald

11am-1pm

Kidwelly Castle is a picturesque gem nestled into the beautiful ancient town of Kidwelly. The ruined castle sits on the meandering River Gwendraeth Fach. Walk along the path between the river and the castle and glimpse rows of terraced houses, washing lines and makeshift garden sheds that back onto the castle. Sketch the overgrown riverside plants that obscure the view of the castle and take in the wonderful views in the footsteps of JMW Turner and John Piper.

Parking is free, the car park turning is opposite County Antiques just off Bridge Street. Meet on Kidwelly Bridge near Country antiques, 11am.
